

Fong So is a journalist-turned artist. He was an editor of a current affairs magazine before turning to art. Despite his training in traditional Chinese painting and the media of brush and ink, both the content and the genre of his work are obviously different from those of traditional Chinese painting. He also works with woodcut prints and other media. His works have been exhibited in Hong Kong, South Korea, the UK and the USA. He has works in the collections of the Hong Kong Museum of Art, the Gwangju Art Museum in South Korea, and the British Museum in London. He has published ten art albums.

1951 Born in Canton (Guangzhou), China.

1962 Moved to Hong Kong.

1963-69 Studied Chinese painting with Professor Chao Shao-ang, master of the Lingnan School.

1970-74 Studied at the Chinese University of Hong Kong and graduated with a degree in social science.

1974-78 Schoolteacher and the co-editor of a magazine for secondary schoolteachers.

1979-80 Worked for Cosmos Books Limited, a publishing and book-selling company.

1981-98 Editor (1981) and later Managing Editor (1982-98) of The Nineties Monthly (The Seventies Monthly before 1984), a Chinese language current affairs magazine.

1985-96 Executive committee member of the Hong Kong Journalists Association (elected as vice-chairman for several terms).

1998 Turned from journalism to art.

2000-19 Works exhibited in Hong Kong and abroad.

2014-20 Worked on two sketch projects during Hong Kong's two mass protest movements (the 2014 Umbrella Movement and the 2019-20 resistance movement).
